Tempranillo Red Cooking Wine

UNIT: 10ltr

Description

Produced in Southwest Spain at Bodegas Lopez Morenas, Extremadura. Lopez Morenas uses modern state-of-the-art technology yet still respects old tradition and has been making high-quality wines for over 5 decades.

The unique production process which slowly reduces the ABV of the wine before a pinch of salt is added.

Since the lower ABV is not achieved through the traditional industrial de-alcoholisation method of boiling the wine you lose none of the flavours or natural characteristics of the wine.
